Alfaisal University

Student Healthcare Policy

Introduction
Alfaisal University is committed to promote good health and meet the medical needs of its students.

Policy
- A student who is ill or experiencing chronic disease should inform the University before admission
- Non- Saudis students must be covered by a major medical health insurance.

Procedure
Student who suffers from disability, psychological or health issue must consider the following:
- Student who has a disability issue must submit official copy of his/her medical report to student counseling office & the college.
- Student who has a psychological issue must submit official copy of his/her medical report to student counseling office & the college.
- Student who has a physical illness must submit official of his/her medical report to student counseling office, the University clinic & the college.

Medical insurance card
Alfaisal University provides a medical insurance card to the students who are guaranteed under Alfaisal University.