

Alfaisal University Student Attendance Policy

Students expected to attend all classes. An excuse of absence is required for a student who does not attend in classes due to personal or family health reasons.

Policy

- Student can use the retake available hours to replace the DN with R.
- Students are expected to attend all classes. They are allowed 15% absence without excuses and 25% absence with excuses.
- An absence for a non-acute medical service does not constitute an excused absence.
- Among the reasons of absences that are considered excused by the university are the following:
 - Death or major illness in a student's immediate family. Immediate family may include: mother, father, sister, brother, grandparents, spouse, child, spouse's child, grandparents, legal guardian and should submit a death certificate.
 - Illness of a dependent family member.
 - Participation in legal proceedings or administrative procedures that require a student's presence.
 - Injury or Illness that is too severe or contagious for the student to attend class.
 - Injury or illness of three or more days. For injury or illness that requires a student to be absent from classes for three or more business days, the student should obtain a medical confirmation note from his or her medical provider. The medical confirmation note must contain the date and time of the illness and medical professional's confirmation of needed absence and it must be from a certified hospital.
- Mandatory admission interviews for professional or graduate school which cannot be rescheduled.
- The Vice dean for Student Affairs, counselor or the dean of the student's college may provide an email for the student to take to the instructor stating that the dean has verified the student's absence as excused.
- If needed, the student must provide additional documentation substantiating the reason for the absence with the filled form of absence that is satisfactory to the instructor, within one week of the last date of the absence.
- Each faculty member will refer to the attendance policy, which will be stated in the course syllabus and shared at the first class meeting. Certain courses may have more stringent attendance policies. Students should be aware of differences and plan accordingly.
- When the number of absences exceeds 15 % with no excuse of the scheduled classes, the faculty may issue a failing grade (DN) for the student.

Procedure

- The student is responsible for providing satisfactory evidence to the instructor concerning the reason for absence.
- If the instructor does not accept the student's excuse the student can take the case to the college dean. If rejected and the policy of absence is applicable the student may seek the Student Affairs help.
- Absences should not exceed 15 % of the lectures and laboratory sessions specified for the course.
- Faculty member will keep a weekly record of attendance for each student.
- When an absence is unavoidable, a student should contact the instructor or the College Dean. Documentation may be required. Students are liable for the work missed and must make arrangements to complete the incomplete work. Instructors are not required to make exceptional arrangements for students who have missed a class.
